Rocks community news notes

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Cold temperatures and rain, School had to close for a few days. Extremely cold weather by Friday night, around 0 temperature.

Mrs. Shirley Jennings left Lynchburg General Hospital on Saturday, Jan. 14. May she have a quick recovery.

Leslie Pankey died at his home Saturday, Jan. 14, around 6 p.m. after a short illness. He was faithful to his church and will be greatly missed. Sympathy goes out to his family and relatives. A good number attended the funeral on Monday afternoon at Elon Church.

A number attended the Judson E. Hodges funeral in Farmville on Sunday afternoon at the Shorter Funeral Home. He was a nephew of Ernest Baldwin of Pamplin. He died at his residence on Friday. Sympathy goes out to his relatives.

Sympathy goes out to Mrs. Jack H. Williams of Appomattox in the death of her mother, Mrs. Martha Millner who died at Virginia Baptist Hospital on Jan. 14. She was a member of Liberty Church at Appomattox. Funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon at Robinson's Funeral Home. Burial was in Lynchburg. Sympathy extended the many relatives.

Get well wishes go out to Mrs. Mattie Crawley who is home from the hospital.

Mrs. Dave Childress is doing much better. Glad she is able to get around.

Miss Ora Paulette continues a patient at Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Mrs. Rachel Lawson is home after a stay in the hospital.

Phyllis Richardson couldn't get to Lynchburg on Monday for a check-up because of snow and ice but went on Tuesday and is doing really well.

Weather continues very cold and bad.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lee who won the anniversary cake today, Jan. 19, over Gospel Radio.

Glad Mr. Charlie Martin is doing much better. May he have a quick recovery.

Congratulations to Mrs. Lena Banton who celebrated her 93rd birthday on Jan. 9. May she have many more. She lives in Maryland with her son. She doesn't have to use glasses. She formerly lived in Hollywood neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Elder were visiting Mary Bagley on Thursday. She is still not well. May she have a speedy recovery.

Get well wishes go out to Greg Williams, who was sick a few days this week.

We were glad to have Emmett Dinkins of Woodbridge, to come back home and join our church family at Rocks on Sunday, Jan. 15.

Cassie Baldwin has lost another first cousin, of Farmville, who died at Southside Community Hospital on Thursday after being ill since Christmas. She was Mrs. Mary Carter of near Sheppards, wife of the late J. H. Carter.

Elsie Ranson called to see Gladys Ranson this week one day. May she soon be up and out.

Get well wishes go out to Mrs. Patricia Stone, of Evergreen, who is recovering from surgery.

Happiness Is 4-H

4-H members with Tobacco projects should turn in their completed records by the first of February to have an opportunity to compete for some excellent District and State Awards. Young tobacco growers may submit project records for their 1983 crop of Dark, Flue, or Burley tobacco. Awards for the tobacco projects are provided by the Dark Fired Tobacco Commission, Flue Cured Tobacco Commission and the Southwest Virginia Agricultural Association.

4-H'ers with Beef Cattle have until February 1 to submit Beef Heifer nominations for the Central Virginia Livestock Show which will be held on Saturday, May 5. Both purebred and crossbred heifers may be shown. Nomination forms and complete details are available from the Extension Office.

The Central Virginia Livestock Show also includes Beef Steers and Market Lambs. Beef Steer entries closed January 1, but 4-H'ers and FFA students have until March 1 to enter Market Lambs in the show. Steers and Lambs are sold at auction following the show.

Congratulations to the more than sixty 4-H members who were recognized at the annual 4-H Awards banquet on Monday night. 4-H'ers receiving awards included those members who had done outstanding work in their projects and other activities during the past (1982-83) 4-H year.

The importance of 4-H Volunteer Leaders cannot be emphasized enough. Volunteers serve many major roles in 4-H including organization of clubs, supervising activities, teaching special subject matter and encouraging participation. Volunteers are always needed for new projects, new clubs and to assist with on-going programs. If you would like to become a 4-H Volunteer and help young people achieve as much as possible, please contact me at the Appomattox County Extension Office.

U.Va. schedules class

The University of Virginia has scheduled an extension class in Appomattox for the spring term. The class number and title is EDSE 506-E: Teaching Children: The Slow Learner. The instructor will be Dr. James A. White. Three hours of graduate or undergraduate credits will be given for successful completion of the class.

The class will begin on February 6, at 7 p.m. in Room 208 at Appomattox County High School.

The Appomattox County School Board arranges with the University of Virginia School of Continuing Education for classes to be offered in the fall and spring semesters and for a June three weeks session to be conducted. These classes are planned for instructional personnel who are renewing teaching certificates, seeking additional endorsements or gaining more depth in their respective areas of assignment.

The classes are also open to persons who are not employed by the school system. The tuition cost is $150.00 for persons who do not hold a contract in Appomattox County.

Additional information may be secured by calling Mrs. Jean Hesson at the School Board Office. The telephone number is 352-8251.

Mt. Shiloh news notes

Last Sunday's morning worship services were enjoyed by all attending. The Rev. Garry D. Moore delivered the message.

The Young Adult Choir will have a rehearsal on Thurs., Jan. 26, at 6 p.m. All members are asked to come out.

The community was saddened by the death of their oldest member, Mr. Chilton.

On Saturday our hearts were saddened again by the death of Mr. Willie Harvey. He will be buried Wednesday, Jan. 25 at 2 p.m. at the Promise Land Baptist Church with the Rev. Albert Davis officiating.

Remember all the sick in your prayers.
